The Senate and House.

Proceedings of Both Branches of Congress.

VARIOUS SUBJECTS TREATED.

The Most Important Subject Discussed in the Senate Was the Temperance Question, But No Action Taken—The River and Harbor Bill Still the One Subject Before the House—Other Washington Dispatches.

WASHINGTON, May 29.—In the senate yesterday Mr. Sherman, from the committee on foreign affairs, reported an amendment to be offered to the consular and diplomatic appropriation bill authorizing the president to carry into effect the recommendations of the international conference by the appointment (by and with the advice and consent of the senate) of three commissioners to represent the United States in the inter-colonial railway commission, whose compensation is to be paid from the common fund to be contributed from by the several nations interested; also to detail from the army and navy such officers as may be spared without detriment to the service, to serve as engineers under such commission in making a survey, their expenses to be paid by the commission, and appropriating $65,000 as the share of the United States of the expenses of such commission and survey.

The resolution offered Tuesday by Mr. Cullum about the transportation of merchandise in bond over the Canadian Pacific road went over without action.

The senate bill subjecting imported liquors to the laws of the several states was again taken up, and Mr. Morgan made an argument against its constitutionality. He did not think that it was in the contemplation of the framers of the constitution that the states of the American Union through their legislatures and their powers of sovereignty, should be called upon as instrumentalities of law making by the congress of the United States. The functions of the state were necessarily confined in the constitution to those matters expressly reserved to them, and to those matters over which they had original jurisdiction and power at the time they consented to the formation of the present union.

Whenever that doctrine was dislodged in respect of such matters as the senate was now considering, congress would have entered on a journey which, when finished, would find the country a consolidated empire. He did not believe in any legislation of a general character by congress that had a local and peculiar operation. Uniformity of legislation was a prerequisite, but a bill now before the senate could not possibly have a general and uniform hearing among the states. The right of free ingress and egress of the citizens of one state into and from another state, and the right of free traffic with each other, was the very life blood of society. The pending bill was one to enable a state to interfere, by its legislation, with the right of its people to use ardent spirits.

It might not be a valuable right. It might be one that ought to be retained by law. He believed that if the supreme court had taken from the beginning a proper view of the question, there would not have been the slightest difficulty in according to the states the full assuming of their police powers for the control of the traffic and use of intoxicants.

Mr. McAdoo, of New Jersey, offered as a substitute for the entire bill a bill creating a board of river and harbor commissioners and appropriating a bulk sum of $10,000,000 to be expended by them. Lost.

The committee then rose and reported the bill to the house.

Mr. Dockery, of Missouri, moved to recommit the bill, with instructions to the committee on rivers and harbors to report it back with the Hennepin canal clause stricken out. Lost—yeas, 61; nays, 128.

The bill was then passed without division.

On motion of Mr. Cannon, of Illinois, from the committee on rules, a resolution was adopted setting aside Thursday for the consideration of public building bills.

On motion of Mr. O'Neill, of Pennsylvania, an adjournment was ordered from to-day until Monday.

The house then at 5:30 adjourned.

liquors in prohibition states was resumed and Mr. Call concluded his argument.

Mr. Pierce spoke in support of the bill.

Mr. Blair argued in support of the bill, proposing, however, to amend it by striking out the word "terminated," and inserting in lieu of it the words "begun within the limits of the state of destination," so as to make the police power attach to liquors as soon as they reach the boundary line of the state of destination.

Mr. Turpie in opposing the bill held that no state legislature and no National legislature could destroy the right of an owner of property, to sell, pledge, or give it away, and he declared that congress should not conform its legislation to please the transient fanaticism of such a state as Iowa. On the contrary such states should conform their legislation to the policy of the constitution of the United States and of the commercial world.

Mr. Blair's amendment was rejected. A motion to adjourn and a roll call showed no quorum present, when Mr. Blair remarking that the senate was in no condition to pass a temperance bill, moved to adjourn. The motion was agreed to, and at 6:40 p. m., the senate adjourned.

House Proceedings.

WASHINGTON, May 29.—In the house, after the reading of the journal, Mr. O'Neil, of Pennsylvania, presented the credentials of Mr. Vaux and they having been read by the clerk he escorted Mr. Vaux to the bar of the house and the latter gentleman qualified as a representative from the Third district of Pennsylvania. Mr. Vaux affirmed, and as he took his seat he was greeted with applause.

On motion of Mr. Grosvenor, of Ohio, a bill was passed appropriating $125,000 for the establishment of a National military park at the battlefield of Chickamauga.

On motion of Mr. Rae, of Arkansas, the senate bill was passed donating Lake Contrary to the city of St. Joseph, Missouri.

On motion of Mr. Flower, of New York, a bill was passed amending the act for the erection of an appraiser's warehouse in New York, so as to provide that the secretary of the treasury may erect the warehouse at any point within the collection district north of Liberty street on the west side of the city.

A conference was ordered on the naval appropriation bill, and then the house went into committee of the whole on the river and harbor bill. The pending question was on the point of order raised by Mr. McCreary, of Kentucky, against the clause prescribing penalties upon the owners of bridges which obstruct the navigation of rivers. The chair overruled the point of order.

On motion of Mr. Dunnell, of Minnesota, Section 8, which declares that it shall not be lawful to construct a bridge over any navigable water way of the United States within the limits of a state without obtaining the approval of the secretary of war, was stricken out.

On motion of Mr. Post, of Illinois, a survey was authorized of the Illinois river from LaSalle to the Mississippi river, with a view to ascertaining what lands would be subject to overflow by the construction of a navigable water way between Lake Michigan and the Mississippi river.

Mr. Comstock, of Minnesota, moved to strike out the clause authorizing a survey of the entrance to the Bay of Superior, at the west end of Lake Superior, and a report to be made whether it is advisable for the government to cut a new channel or entrance to the bay opposite the opening between Rice's Point and Connor's Point. The motion was agreed to.

Mr. McAdoo, of New Jersey, offered as a substitute for the entire bill a bill creating a board of river and harbor commissioners and appropriating a bulk sum of $10,000,000 to be expended by them. Lost.

The committee then rose and reported the bill to the house.

Mr. Dockery, of Missouri, moved to recommit the bill, with instructions to the committee on rivers and harbors to report it back with the Hennepin canal clause stricken out. Lost—yeas, 61; nays, 128.

The bill was then passed without division.

On motion of Mr. Cannon, of Illinois, from the committee on rules, a resolution was adopted setting aside Thursday for the consideration of public building bills.

On motion of Mr. O'Neill, of Pennsylvania, an adjournment was ordered from to-day until Monday.

The house then at 5:30 adjourned.

The President's Vacation.

WASHINGTON, May 29.—It is nearly settled that the president and his family will summer at Cape May Point, N. J., either with the postmaster general, who has a cottage there, or in a cottage that is being specially constructed for that purpose. At all events Mrs. Harrison has come to the conclusion that she does not want to spend another summer at Deer Park, and she is known to be very much impressed with the beauties of the Jersey seashore. Ex-Senator Sewell called on the president yesterday, and repeated his invitation to have the executive household quartered at his cottage at Cape May.

Mr. Pugh argued in favor of the bill. He held that the proposed legislation (as the supreme court had decided) was constitutional. To his mind the opposition to the bill was utterly indefensible. The defeat of the bill would leave the states in a most serious predicament.

He believed that the states had the power (without any legislation by congress) to control the sale and use of intoxicants within their limits. The exercise of that invaluable right had been suspended by the decision of the supreme court, but its existence had not been affected.

Mr. Call expressed his entire sympathy with the idea that the states had absolute control of the question of the traffic in intoxicating liquors, and was willing to vote for almost any bill which would attain that end.

The house fortification bill was reported from the appropriation committee with amendments, and was ordered to be laid on the table and printed.

A conference report on the bill for a public building at Cedar Rapids, Iowa, was presented and agreed to.

The consideration of the bill as to

Statue to General Lee

Thousands Gathering to See it Unveiled.

RICHMOND, VIRGINIA, CROWDED.

Arrangements All Complete for the Ceremonies, Which Will Be Witnessed by One of the Greatest Crowds Ever Assembled in That City.

THE EQUESTRIAN STATUE OF LEE.

RICHMOND, Va., May 29.—The city of Richmond is crowded almost to suffocation with visitors who have come to witness the unveiling of the Lee statue. Trains from the north and from the south have been arriving at short intervals for the past twenty-four hours. The crash of brass and the beating of drums is heard on every hand. Every one of the southern states has sent a delegation in uniform. From every part of the state of Virginia people have swarmed into Richmond until hotels and private residences alike are overflowing, and every public hall is filled with cots. Nearly 5,000 Confederate veterans stopped last night on cotton ticking spread over straw, the only bed that the committee on arrangement could provide.

Confederate emblems draped in graceful harmony with the National colors, festoon the fronts of houses and adorn the corridors of the hotels. State colors are swung like banners across the principal streets.

The formal festivities were opened yesterday evening at the Richmond theater with a military ball. The theater has been decorated for the occasion with an elaborate display of flags and bunting. From the center of the high ceiling was swung a canopy of streamers in the colors of Maryland and Virginia. The same colors prevailed in the plush drapery of the balconies. Along the border of each of the balconies were the coats of arms of the Confederate states, while between them hung banners of plush. In the center of the stage was a fountain half hidden from view in a bower of blossoming plants. Against the stage drop in the rear stood a bust of Lee. On either side was a stack of Confederate colors and besides them the coats of arms of Maryland and Virginia. The boxes on either side of the stage were dressed in the Confederate colors and the colors of Maryland and Virginia.

Miss Mary Lee and Miss Mildred Lee, daughters of Gen. R. E. Lee, assisted in the reception of the guests. The army of northern Virginia met in the hall of the house of delegates last night and heard an address by Gen. E. M. Law, of South Carolina. The election of officers for the ensuing year was then held, after which the body adjourned to Sanger hall and partook of a banquet. It was the largest gathering of the association since the war.

The election of officers for the ensuing year was then held, after which the body adjourned to Sanger hall and partook of a banquet. It was the largest gathering of the association since the war.

MARYLAND'S DELEGATION.

BALTIMORE, May 29.—The steamer Charlotte, leaving here yesterday evening for Richmond, carried the veteran corps of the Fifth regiment, the Society of the Army and Navy of the Confederate States in Maryland, and the Society of the Maryland Line, comprising about 1,200 men, left for the same place on a late train last night to do honor to the memory of their former illustrious commander-in-chief, Baltimore's pride, the Fifth, 500 strong, started for Richmond at an early hour yesterday morning.

A FEW GOING FROM NEW YORK.

NEW YORK, May 29.—A train of five Pullman sleeping cars and a baggage car, containing about 150 Confederate veterans and their wives, left Jersey City about 7:15 last night for Richmond, to be present at the unveiling of the statue of Gen. Lee, in that city. The train will reach Richmond about 8 a. m.

After the Money Instead of the Man.

ST. LOUIS, Mo., May 29.—Mansfield King, the man who robbed President Moffatt, of the Denver bank, of $21,000, says he has made a proposition in writing to the bank officials to return the money and pay all the expenses they have incurred in the matter, providing they agree not to prosecute him. Nothing has been heard from Denver in regard to the acceptance of the proposition as yet.

A Farmers' Boycott Ended.

DECATUR, Ind., May 29.—The boycott recently instituted by the Farmers' Alliance against the business men of Warren, Ind., which caused widespread interest, has been declared at an end, and now all interests are harmonious. The news of that place, which suspended, will resume publication.

A RACE FOR GOVERNOR.

Meeting of the Alabama Democratic State Convention.

MONTGOMERY, Ala., May 29.—The Alabama Democratic state convention was called to order at noon yesterday by Chairman Tompkins, of the state executive committee. W. H. Denison, of Etowah, was chosen temporary chairman, and A. Sternhart, of Butler, secretary. Committees on credentials and permanent organization were appointed, and the convention, at 1:40, took a recess till 5 p. m. to await their reports.

At the evening session the committee on credentials notified the convention it would be unable to report before today, and the convention, at 6:15 p. m., adjourned. The convention is the most exciting held here since the war. There are five candidates for governor, R. F. Kolb, of Barbour; G. F. Johnston, of Jefferson; William Richardson, of Madison; James Crook, of Calhoun, and Thomas G. Jones, of Montgomery.

ILLINOIS PROHIBITION CONVENTION.

BLOOMINGTON, Ill., May 29.—The Prohibition state convention came to order at 9 o'clock yesterday morning. The nomination of candidates was at once commenced. R. L. Link was nominated for state treasurer and Dr. Carl Johann for state superintendent of public schools. The committee on platform reported resolutions favoring National prohibition of the liquor traffic, free coinage of silver, the issue of money direct by the government, control of telegraph and railway lines by the government and a law authorizing a direct vote of the people for United States senators.

STAGE STRUCK.

A Prominent Society Lady of Hamilton, Ohio, Will Take to the Boards.

HAMILTON, O., May 29.—It was a surprise to many of the society people of this city when it was authoritatively announced yesterday that Mrs. N. E. Warwick, a prominent young society lady of this city, intended to go on the stage. It is learned that Mrs. Warwick has been studying in private for some time in contemplation of such a move, and that herself and husband have rented their elegant residence to Hon. Peter Murphy and family.

Mr. Warwick is a business man of Dayton, O., and it is understood that he favors his wife's resolve. Mrs. Warwick is blonde, of medium height and is considered very beautiful. What company she will attach herself to or exactly at what time she will make her debut is impossible now to ascertain.

TO BE THE FINEST OF ITS KIND.

PHILADELPHIA, May 29.—Papers have been signed in this city whereby the Astors, of New York, have agreed to build in that city for George C. Boldt, proprietor of the Bellevue and Stratford here, the finest hotel in this side of the Atlantic. It will probably take two years to build the new house, but work will begin in a few weeks. The site will be at Thirty-third street and Fifth avenue and the cost will be between $2,000,000 and $3,000,000. The hotel will be erected on the Parisian plan and will have but one entrance, with a big court in the center. It is to be conducted on the European plan. The site is that of the old John Jacob Astor residence.

WOMEN BRUTALLY WHIPPED.

CORYDON, Ind., May 29.—Before daylight yesterday morning a band of White Caps, numbering about twenty, visited the house of two women of bad repute, and who are suspected of having burned the buildings at the fair grounds, dragged them from their beds out to the border of the town, where they tied them to trees and scourged them most inhumanely. The women were Lucy Noyes and Jane Play. They were unbound and left where they fainted and fell at the feet of the trees in a condition of unconsciousness.

DROWNED IN A MILL RACE.

MINNEAPOLIS, Minn., May 29.—Mamie Lovel, aged 14, and Lillie Maine, aged 6, daughter and niece of Clement T. Lovel, were drowned while crossing the Pillsbury "A" mill race. They were carrying Mr. Lovel's lunch and were accompanied by Agnes Lovel, aged 9. All three fell from an unsafe footbridge. Johnson, a saw mill hand, rescued Agnes and recovered Mamie's body. The other body has not been recovered.

YOUNG LADY DISAPPEARS.

MACOMB, Ill., May 29.—Residents of the village of Industry, this county, are greatly exercised over the mysterious disappearance of Ella Cordell, a handsome young woman, who left home ten days ago to visit a sister at Bowen. She was traced on the Wabash railroad to near Keokuk, where all clews were lost. A reward of $50 is offered for information to her whereabouts. She is 24 years old and a blonde.

A MISSING MAN.

SACRAMENTO, Cal., May 29.—Friends of William B. Bragg, the nephew of the famous Confederate general, are very much concerned over his fate. He came here in April and sought employment, as he failed to get remittances from his home in Mobile. Two weeks ago he suddenly disappeared, and it is feared he has been lost or made away with, as no trace of him has been heard since.

CHURCH GATHERING IN PENNSYLVANIA.

LEBANON, Pa., May 29.—The triennial meeting of the general synod of the Reformed Church in the United States, convened in the First Reformed church yesterday evening at 8 o'clock. On account of ill-health the venerable president, Dr. Walker, of North Carolina, was not present to preach the opening sermon. The Women's Missionary convention will convene to-day.

BUSINESS PORTION OF A TOWN DESTROYED.

RATHDRUM, Idaho, May 29.—Fire yesterday afternoon destroyed the entire business portion of the town. Loss, $50,000; with little insurance.

THE EVENING BULLETIN

ROSSER & McCARTHY,
Proprietors

THURSDAY, MAY 29, 1890.

THE Fleming Gazette says "the Democracy is sliding down the incline into the sea." The recent elections indicate that the g. o. p. is already "in the soup."

HANSON KENNEDY, Esq., a prominent young attorney of Carlisle, has been unanimously declared the Democratic nominee for delegate to the Constitutional convention in the Nicholas-Robertson district.

GOVERNOR BUCKNER is a hustler. Although the recent Legislature passed about 1,900 acts he kept right up with it, and when the State Solons adjourned only twenty-seven bills were unacted upon by the Governor.

THE "Valued Policy" bill passed by the Legislature during the closing hours of the session did not reach the Governor in time for his approval—either this, or he ignored it. The insurance fraternity are no doubt rejoicing at its failure to become a law.

THE race for Superior Court Judge is warming up. J. T. Hazelrigg, of West Liberty, and C. R. Brooks, of Mt. Sterling, are now spoken of as candidates, making five in the race. Mason County's choice, L. W. Robertson, Esq., is in the lead and will stay there.

No Free Turnpikes.

Mason County will not have free turnpikes anyways soon.

The proposition recently mentioned was withdrawn from the Court of Claims this morning. The turnpike companies—that is the big corporations—declined to enter into the plan suggested, and the matter had to be dropped.

Harrison Lacks Backbone.

Two private pension bills that Cleveland vetoed were re-introduced and passed by the present Congress. They were sent to President Harrison, but he did not veto them, neither did he sign them, but allowed them to become laws by holding them ten days. Like Cleveland, he believed them to be wrong, but he didn't have the moral courage to disapprove a wrong. Cleveland had the courage to carry out his honest convictions. Harrison is a representative, and a fitting one, of the party of false pretense, hypocrisy and conceit.—Exchange.

You Don't Have to Answer.

"You will please instruct Enumerators in cases where persons refuse to answer the questions on the population schedule relating to physical and mental disabilities or the questions relating to farms, home and mortgages to enter in the proper column the words 'refused to answer.' No further steps will be necessary on the part of the Supervisor or Enumerator, and all legal proceedings will be instituted by the Washington office through the Department of Justice."

The Washington correspondent of the Enquirer says: "The foolish threat made by a one-horse census officer in New York made something like this necessary. The intimation that legal proceedings will be instituted through the Department of Justice is still in the nature of a threat, but it is not so wild as the New York man's. Nobody is going to get hurt, though, for not answering illegal questions."

Down Goes the Surplus.

"In December 1887, President Cleveland sent a message to Congress in which he stated that there was or would soon be in the Treasury a surplus of $140,000,000," says the Courier-Journal. "The existence of such a surplus, he stated would be an outrage on the tax-payers and plain proof that they were unnecessarily taxed."

"A Republican Congress has been in session six months, and it is announced that the probable deficit will be $97,000,000."

"During the campaign of 1888 the Republicans repeatedly declared that a surplus was easier to manage than a deficit, but they have abolished the surplus and now are face to face with a deficit."

"But the difference between a Democratic surplus of $140,000,000 and a Republican deficit of $97,000,000 does not adequately measure the iniquity of Republican legislation. The McKinley bill may reduce revenues to some extent, but it means a tremendous increase of taxation covered upon by an increase in the prices of manufactured products. Fortunately the people are beginning to understand that the tariff is a tax."

Progress.

It is very important in this age of vast material progress that a remedy be pleasing to the taste and to the eye, easily taken, acceptable to the stomach, and healthy in its nature and effects. Possessing these qualities, Syrup of Figs is the one perfect laxative and most gentle diuretic known.

THE APPELLATE CONVENTION.

Hon. W. T. Cox, of Bowling Green, Temporary Chairman—A Long Struggle Predicted.

The Democratic convention to nominate a candidate for Clerk of the Court of Appeals met in Liederkranz Hall at Louisville yesterday 12 o'clock.

Promptly at noon Chairman Alford, of the State Central Committee called the convention to order in a tastefully-worded, gracefully-delivered speech that was full of good Democracy couched in eloquent, well-turned sentences, says the Times. After music by the band, nominations for Temporary Chairman were called for, and Hon. Hugh P. Cooper, of Marion, put in nomination Hon. W. T. Cox, of Warren. Hon. Ben Lee Hardin, of Mercer, seconded the nomination.

On motion of Captain T. C. Bell, of Harrodsburg, the nominations were closed, and the election was made unanimous.

In assuming the chair Mr. Cox made a few well-timed remarks, acknowledging the honor conferred, and called for nominations for Secretaries. Messrs. Green Kellar, of Nicholas County, and James Stone, of Breckinridge County, were elected.

The Times says the convention was unusually orderly during the opening work. The preliminary debates brought out some gentlemen whose names and faces are becoming familiar in the political gatherings of the State. Evan Settle, of Owen, was greeted with a flattering little burst of applause when he arose to make a motion. In another part of the hall sat another competitor for the Attorney Generalship, Jack Hendrick, of Flemingsburg.

The convention continued the work of organizing by each district announcing its choice for the committees on Credentials, Resolutions and Organization. The Ninth district announced the following:

Credentials—Geo. W. Castle, Lawrence County.

Organization—T. R. Ward, Harrison County.

Resolutions—T. D. Marcum, Boyd County.

Vice President—H. T. Lloyd, Bracken.

Organization—D. C. Walker, of Simpson, and C. M. Thomas, of Bourbon.

Credentials—John P. Norvall, Nicholas, and James W. Leeves, Meade.

Resolutions—Henry Watterson and Willis L. Reeves.

Hon. Harvey Myers, of Covington, was decided on for Permanent Chairman.

When the convention adjourned yesterday afternoon, the Times says the odds were 7 to 5 against Longmoor; 8 to 5 against Adams; 2 to 1 against Madden. The indications were that the struggle would prove a long and determined one. No ballot was taken last evening.

Judge Robertson.

The Lexington Transcript says: "Judge L. W. Robertson, of Maysville, candidate for Judge of the Superior Court, was in the city Tuesday mixing with his old friends. Judge Robertson started out in the practice of law in Lexington several years ago with Judge Morton and other distinguished Lexington lawyers, and the reputation he has made as a lawyer has endeared him to the people of the Bluegrass capital and they wish him success. He is a gentleman in every sense of the word and is a lawyer of distinction."

Here and There.

Miss Ollie Current is the guest of Mrs. J. S. Kennedy at Carlisle.

Messrs. Wm. Winn and H. D. Winn, of this city, were in Washington City yesterday.

Mrs. George E. Porter and daughter, Miss Corrie, spent the past week with relatives at Carlisle.

Says the Paris Kentuckian: "Mrs. Anna Cunningham will go to Maysville this week to remain until July. She has been most heartily received by her many friends here. Mrs. Cunningham will, with her friend, Mrs. F. A. Hays, board at Mrs. Johnson's, in Maysville."

For the Farmer and Stockman.

Within the past four weeks over 260,000 have been placed on the market at Chicago.

The tobacco season this week was a splendid one, and many broad acres of the weed were set.

Melbourne, Australia, advises state that the number of sheep in Australia has increased from 66,869,030 in 1879 to 96,881,835 in 1888, the increase amounting to 30,012,805 in nine years. This gives an average increase of 3,344,756 sheep a year.

OUR NEIGHBORS.

ORANGEBURG.

Some few attended court at Flemingsburg Monday.

Six or seven of S. A. Bramel's family are down with the measles.

Miss Redden, of Manchester, who has been visiting Dr. Hord, has returned home.

FREE SCHOOLS.

Proposition to Levy a Tax of 15 Cents in Aid of Same To Be Voted On in August.

In the County Court yesterday County Superintendent Galbraith filed a petition signed by about seven hundred tax-payers asking that a vote be taken in August next on the proposition to levy a tax of 15 cents on the $100 in aid of the common schools. Judge Coons granted the petition. Following is the order, as entered, in full:

On this day a written petition signed by one hundred and more legal voters, who are reputable citizens of Mason County and housekeepers and tax payers, as shown by proof made, requesting a vote of the county upon a tax upon the property of the county in aid of the common school fund, and fixing in said petition the tax to be voted at fifteen cents on each one hundred dollars' of taxable property in Mason County, was presented in court and ordered filed.

Therefore, in accordance with an act of the Legislature authorizing Mason County to levy a tax in aid of common schools in said county, approved April 29, 1890, it is now ordered that at the August election, (Monday, August 4, 1890), the officers of election of each of the various voting precincts of this county shall open a poll for the purpose of taking the sense of the legal voters of said county upon the proposition whether or not the property in the county shall be taxed fifteen cents on each one hundred dollars' worth of taxable property in aid of the common school fund of Mason County, and that the following question shall be propounded to each voter who votes: "Are you in favor of the tax in aid of common schools in this county?" And his vote shall be recorded for or against it, as he desires; and said officers shall certify and return said vote the same as the other election returns are made.

River Items.

The coal shipments from Pittsburg yesterday amounted to 750,000 bushels.

The M. P. Wells will make an excursion to Moscow, O., to-morrow morning.

The Andes passes down this afternoon and the Sherley to-night. Due up to-night: Chancellor, Boston and Keystone State.

The new boat being built at Levanna for the Cincinnati and Dayton trade will be named the "Bellevue." She will be launched next week.

BAPTIST ANNIVERSARIES.

The Session at Chicago Finish Their Work and Adjourn.

CHICAGO, May 29.—The most important session of the Baptist "anniversaries" was held yesterday morning, when the announcement was made that the great fund for the establishment of the educational constitution for the Chicago university had been raised. A year ago Mr. John D. Rockfeller subscribed $600,000 to this institution of learning on condition that a full million be made by June 1, 1890.

Resolutions were unanimously adopted thanking Mr. Rockfeller and the officers of the American Baptist Education Society.

The following officers of the Education Society were elected: President, George A. Pillsbury; vice president, Rev. Sam Duncan and R. W. Dudley; recording secretary, A. K. Parker; corresponding secretary, Rev. F. T. Gates; treasurer, Joshua Leavering; auditor, Col. Gate Hoyte.

In the afternoon various addresses were made, and last night the great meeting at the auditorium concluded the "anniversaries."

Buffalo Malsters.

BUFFALO, N. Y., May 29.—At a meeting of the malsters of this city an executive committee of seven was appointed, with full power to take all necessary steps to protect the brewing, malting and barley interests of the city, which are threatened by the increased duty on barley proposed by the McKinley tariff bill. A protest by the malsters of the United States, setting forth the reason for opposing the proposed increase in the duty on barley, has been prepared, and will be presented to the senate.

A Warning to Ice Cream Eaters.

NEW ORLEANS, May 29.—Miss Marie Emilie De Herencourt, a Creole beauty aged 20 years, died at her residence No. 74 1/2 Barracks street, it is supposed from poisoned ice cream. Sunday evening Marie, her affianced, Robert Burvant, and Mrs. De Herencourt and Mr. Burvant were taken ill, but recovered. The following morning Miss Marie was seized with violent cramps and died yesterday from gastro-enteritis.

Assaulted, Wounded and Robbed.

DES MOINES, Iowa, May 29.—G. W. Southwait, an artist, was found in his studio this morning lying upon his floor unconscious, with a dagger wound near his heart. The contents of his trunk were scattered about, and his pockets had been rifled, showing the incentive of the deed to have been robbery. No clew or suspicion exists as to the assailant. The wounded man will probably die.

A Murder Trial Postponed.

ST. LOUIS, May 29.—The case of C. F. Vail, indicted for the murder of his wife last March, has been continued until July 7, to enable the accused to secure new counsel. Vail is given until June 15 to announce his counsel, and if he fails to do so the court will then appoint two lawyers to look after his interests.

Passenger Rates Restored.

NEW YORK, May 29.—The conference in regard to passenger rates in the northwest were all adjusted to-day, and an agreement was signed by all the roads to restore passenger rates to same figures as on Dec. 31. The agreement goes into effect on June 10 and will continue sixty days. No road can withdraw except on thirty days' notice.

To Those Who Go Afoot:

We direct attention to our large lines of Footwear just received, in anticipation of our early Summer demands.

Our stock of heavy wear, in Plow Shoes, Brogans, Kip and Calf goods was never equaled.

Our lighter goods in Men's, Women's and Children's wear, in all the styles of manufacture, make up the handsomest Shoe exhibit ever seen in Maysville.

We defy competition in qualities. That our values are twenty-five per cent. cheaper than may be found elsewhere goes without saying. We will display some taking specialties to-morrow (Saturday) and the coming week. Come and see them. They'll please you.

THE DIFFERENCE.

There is a wide difference between the class of Shoes we handle and that which you will find elsewhere. Ours are made with special reference to service and durability, and to give entire satisfaction to the buyer.

Are you aware that there is no article worn in which this can be so readily done as in Shoes?

In connection with the very best of Shoes—Shoes that will wear one-third longer than the cut-price ones—we name lower prices than others ask for grades and qualities that are "not in it" when compared with ours.

A QUIET HOME WEDDING.

Marriage of Mr. Theo. C. Power and Mis Elizabeth M. Wilson.

The elegant home of Mrs. Mary C. Wilson on East Third street was the scene of a happy nuptial event yesterday afternoon.

At 3 o'clock Mr. Theo. C. Power and Miss Elizabeth M. Wilson were united in marriage. Rev. W. J. E. Cox, pastor of the First Baptist Church, was the officiating minister.

The wedding was a quiet one, only relatives and a few intimate friends of the couple being present. Shortly after the ceremony, the newly wedded left on the F. F. V. for Cincinnati. From there they go to Springfield, O., to spend a week or two with relatives of the bride.

The groom is a son of the late Rev. W. D. Power, and is a member of the firm of Power & Reynolds, druggists. The bride is the youngest daughter of the late John H. Wilson.

A STATEMENT of the condition of the First National Bank appears in this issue. The individual deposits amount to $323,480.93.

MR. CHARLES F. GROSS, advance agent of Eugene Robinson's Mammoth Floating Palace Shows, is in town to-day. The shows will exhibit here Friday, June 6.

THE Fleming Gazette is authority for the statement that a banana-eating contest there between some young ladies resulted in a score of seventeen apiece for three.

THE following explains a joke played on a Carlisle physician one evening this week. The Mercury says: "Dr. Adair wasted his sweetness on the desert air by sympathizing with Roe Carr about his broken leg, when it was only his wooden leg."

JOSEPH HEISER Post No. 13, G. A. R., will meet at hall in court house Friday, May 30, at 9 a. m., for purpose of observing Decoration Day. Members of the Relief Corps are invited to be present. All who have flowers to contribute are asked to send them to the hall early Friday morning.

MESSRS. S. B. CHUNN and H. T. Haulman have formed a partnership in the contracting and building business under the firm name of S. B. Chunn & Co. Will contract for buildings of all kinds. Flour mills and mill machinery a specialty. They have fitted up a neat office on the second floor, adjoining the BULLETIN office.

DR. D. D. PECK and Miss Lucy Ross were married Tuesday evening at the Central Hotel by Rev. Mr. Reeves, of Flemingsburg. The groom is a prominent young physician of Helena. The bride is a daughter of Johnson Ross, who lives near Johnson Station. She is a relative of Mrs. L. W. Galbraith, of this city.

JOHN STEARS, a brakeman on the Kentucky Central, fell off a freight near Paris and was instantly killed. The unfortunate man was running on top of a car in obedience to the engineer's whistle for down brakes, when he slipped and fell beneath the train. He tried to grasp the side of the cars as he fell between them but to no avail. He was horribly mangled.

THE Covington Commonwealth says: "If the mountain won't come to Mohammed, Mohammed will go to the mountain." Mr. S. B. Hall, of the C. & O., for a time was irresistibly drawn to Maysville, Ky. The attraction has been transferred to this city. Just when the happy event is to be announced the informant saith not. It was a long ride every Sunday morning to see her."

A BIG SUIT.

Thomas Green Wants the Adams Express Company to Pay Him $100,000.

The Lexington Transcript says Thos. Green, a son of Mr. Henry Green, ex-Conductor on the Kentucky Central, will sue the Adams Express Company for $100,000 damages.

He alleges that the company accused him of a crime which he did not commit and of which he was declared innocent by a jury of his fellow countrymen. He therefore brings suit for the amount named, alleging that his character is damaged and his feelings wounded to that extent.

The suit grows out of the diamond robbery on the C. & O. Railroad committed by a fellow named White about a year ago, who was a messenger between Louisville and Huntington. The company had Green arrested for receiving stolen goods. On his trial at Louisville, the jury returned a verdict of not guilty.

Mr. Green is now night clerk of the Fourth Avenue Hotel at Louisville, of which his father is proprietor.

The Cincinnati Post says the capture of the distributing agent of Louisiana lottery tickets was a neat piece of work on the part of the police authorities of the Queen City. The fellow has been selling a good many tickets in Maysville.

LOST.—Tuesday night near Blatterman's store, or at the Hill House, a small, perfectly plain gold watch with short chain and venegarrette attached by a child's plain gold ring. Finder will be liberally rewarded by returning same to Mrs. A. M. Campbell, at Hill House.

THE Courier-Journal says: "The largest sum of money paid to a single pensioner since Dr. Walton has been Pension Agent was paid Tuesday. The amount was $4,673.33, and was received by Mrs. Anna Lee, of Maysville. She is the widow of James A. Lee, who was Captain of Company K. of the Sixteenth Kentucky Volunteers. He died September 14, 1870, but for some reason his widow has not been able to collect a pension until now. The amount allowed a Captain is $20 per month, which, since Captain Lee's death, aggregates $4,673.33."

IF the following is true, Mercer County has one of the shrewdest old roosters in the country. The Harrodsburg Sayings says: "Geo. W. Roberts is authority for the following: A relative of his owns a large dominecker rooster that invariably begins a fight in the street with the roosters of the neighborhood, and as the battle rages he retreats, always through the same hole in the fence, followed by his plucky enemy. After he gets on his dung hill, he backs slowly up to a large iron kettle sunk in the ground to hold water. Getting his tail feathers close to this, he gathers seemingly for a grand round, and as the game dashes at him he dodges and lets him go plump into the water. He then unmercifully pecks his head and keeps it under, and has in this way succeeded in drowning two blooded game."

To go with safety through this world
One must be bold and wise;
But he has to rise up early who
Would get ahead of the flies.

Workingmen's Council

Emperor William Has Another Labor Scheme.

ENGLAND'S ASSISTANCE ASKED.

An Arbitration Committee to Settle All Disputes Between Employers and Employers, and to Be Paid an Annual Salary by the German Government. Various Other Foreign News.

LONDON, May 29.—Though there are still a few who doubt the ultimate success of the labor policy of the Emperor William of Germany, nobody questions his sincerity in his endeavors to ameliorate the condition of the workers, while his personal activity in the supervision of labor matters at home and inquiry into them abroad commands general admiration.

It is stated upon good authority in Berlin that the kaiser decided to ask the assistance and co-operation of the English trades unions in the formation of a workingmen's privy council to have control of the preliminary work of formulating the regulations governing trade matters in Germany, and to advise and pass upon such questions as may arise from time to time affecting the relations between employer and employee. Each of these counsellors is to receive an annual salary of 2,000 marks, and the body is to be known as the Arbeitsrat.

Justice (?) in Sofia.

SOFIA, May 29.—The trial of Maj. Panitza, who is charged with conspiring against Prince Ferdinand, was continued to-day. His counsel pointed out that although Maj. Panitza was an officer in the palace guard and commanded all the palace officials, he took no part in the revolutionary action, and abandoned all connection with revolutionary schemes after Jan. 11. He spoke in high terms of the military career of the accused, and demanded that the military law be applied in his case. The major's counsel called attention to Popesco, the Rumanian, who was a revolutionist fourteen years ago, but who now has the confidence of the King of Rumania. After the counsel had been speaking four hours the president of the court ordered him to cease. He refused to comply with the demand, and the president then ordered him to leave the court room. The counsel then withdrew.

Enforcing the Laws Too Fine.

LONDON, May 29.—Upon the arrival of the steamship City of New York from New York, May 21, at Queenstown, yesterday, a female passenger, who gave her name as Mrs. Nugent, was discovered when passing the customs officials to have a loaded revolver concealed in a secret pocket in one of her skirts. She disclaimed ownership of the weapon and declared that a fellow-passenger, named Devine, had requested her to carry it ashore for him. Devine could not be found and Mrs. Nugent was arrested and arraigned before a magistrate, who remanded her for further examination for violation of the law prohibiting the bringing of firearms into Ireland.

A Benevolent Woman's Good Deed.

LONDON, May 29.—Mlle. Raffelovitch, who is to become the wife of Mr. William O'Brien, member of parliament, gave a dinner to 500 poor children of New Tipperary yesterday, and crowned her charitable work for the day by donating a large sum to the support of the school conducted by nuns at that place. The dinner was most successful affair and aroused the enthusiasm of young and old to a high pitch.

Forcing Information.

PARIS, May 29.—M. De Blowitz, the Paris correspondent of The London Times, with a view of forcing the publication of the Tallyrand memoirs, publishes a few extracts from them from memory, he having, at the instigation of M. Thiers, succeeded in reading the original manuscript. Unless this induces the publication of the book, M. De Blowitz threatens to publish further extracts.

A Strike Soon Ended.

LIVERPOOL, May 29.—The strike of the 300 timber handlers on the Liverpool docks, which began yesterday, to enforce their demand for an increase of wages to six shillings a day, was of short duration, as the strikers were backed by the dockmen's union, and the employers were unable to procure men to take their places, the demands of the men were conceded and work was resumed.

A Steamer on Fire.

LIVERPOOL, May 29.—Fire started in the hold of the steamer Runie, while she was lying at her dock yesterday and burned for several hours. The compartments to which the flames were confined were thoroughly flooded before the fire could be extinguished. The damage to the cargo was heavy, but the vessel was uninjured.

Vineyards Being Destroyed By Worms.

LONDON, May 29.—The vineyards in the valley of the Rhine are being devastated by worms, which infest the vines in such numbers that their extermination is impossible. It is estimated that hundreds of thousands of vines have already been destroyed, and the destruction of the entire crop is threatened.

Bound to Go to the Bull Fight.

MADRID, May 29.—A farmer living near Cordova refused to grant permission to one of his servants to visit a bull fight yesterday, whereupon the servant murdered his master and four other members of the family fled.

The Vatican Will Keep Mum.

ROME, May 29.—The pope granted an audience to the Brazilian minister yesterday and assured him that the Vatican would assume a neutral attitude in that republic.

Killed by Lightning.

BERLIN, May 29.—Three laborers were killed by lightning while working in a field near Kelmer, Bavaria, yesterday.
